The Details

2008 Randolph College Greek Play: Elektra

- Elektra will begin at 9:30 and end by 11:15 a.m.
- Please do not plan to attend if you cannot stay for the whole performance.
- The production will be outdoors in the Mabel K. Whiteside Greek Theatre (The Dell) on campus.
- There is no charge for admission, but we do ask that your students dress appropriately for the weather and stone seating, and that they bring water in case of high heat.
- We need to set a limit of 700 attendees for each day, and we’ll take reservations on a first-come, first-served basis.
- Please let us know at your earliest convenience if you plan to attend, and in any case no later than Tuesday, September 23.
- Our producers, Natalie Fort and Johna Strickland, will confirm your reservations, and they can also answer questions and facilitate arrangements: nafort@randolphcollege.edu or (434) 947-8837.
- When you make your reservation, please provide a contact name with phone and email, school name, grade(s) of students attending, and the total number of attendees.
- Prof. Cohen will always help: acohen@randolphcollege.edu or (434) 947-8306.

- In case of rain: we have a wonderful indoor space in Houston Memorial Chapel, but seating is more limited than in the Dell.
- If more people than the Chapel can accommodate have reserved spots, later schools to register will have seating reserved for them at an extra performance at the 9:30 a.m. show on Friday, October 10.
- We’ll let you know by September 26, if your group might be offered the alternative date in case of rain.
- Rain call will be made by 7:30 a.m. on the mornings of October 8 and October 9. Please make sure we have a phone number or an email address we can contact at that time if rain is definite or if rain is possible.
- You can also call our switchboard at 947-8000 the day of performance—they will know if the show will be held at Mabel K. Whiteside Greek Theatre (The Dell) or Houston Memorial Chapel.
